

7 tips for enjoyable song learning – waste less time, limit frustration

from the Smart Hobby Musician Blog

1. Accept that you will suck at the beginning – it takes off the pressure
2. Gain more quality practice time by using a timer
3. Practice what you can't do – not what you already know.
4. Use a metronome to slow things down – it helps with building muscle memory.
5. Listen to the song A LOT (no shit sherlock)
6. Mental practice – can be combined with point 5
7. “Learn them and forget them” – the fun part
